

Vintage Atlantic Beach Apparatus

04/28/14 37 W, 2 I - + 13 - 12

Found for sale on eBay, pair of postcards showing vintage Atlantic Beach Fire Department apparatus. Ford/Bean and an International, both appear from the 1960s. Maybe readers know. Click to slightly enlarge:

The "bean" looks to be from the mid seventies. The International is a Barton American probably sold by Horace Droghnam of Kenly NC. I think Jimmy Leonard was the chief when we sold the Ford to them.

I think...maybe...the International was originally delivered with the fender mounted siren on the roof. Most of the siren-lights that had a rear-mounted light were, or started out on, the roof.
