AFTERNOON SESSION.

President McNeill:

The meeting will come to order. When the adjournment was made, it was taken to 2:30, and while it is past that hour, if the convention wishes to wait ten or fifteen minutes for the representatives to come in, we will do so.

Chief Clarke:

[move we wait fifteen minutes.

President McNeill:

Is there any second to that.

A Delegate:

[move we proceed to business.

Motion seconded and carried.

President McNeill:

Is the Credentials Committee ready to report? Is Mr. Park, of Raleigh, the Chairman of that Committee, in the house?

It was found Mr. Park was not present.

President McNeill:

I am sorry there are so many late. You are sent here to attend to business, and I appreciate the presence of those who are here, and I regret the absence of those who are not here. We certainly ought to be able to devote as much time to this matter as any others.

Chief Clarke:

I don't believe the Committee is ready to report; they haven't had their dinner.

President McNeill:

Mr. Clarke, we have had our dinner. You have had yours. You weren't there at the opening of the liquid refreshments; we missed you!

President McNeill:

Are there any members of the Credentials Committee present?

It was found Chief Hopper, of Winston-Salem, and Mr. Tomlinson, of the Committee were present.

President McNeill:

We will now listen to the report of the Committee on Credentials.

Secretary reads same:

President McNeill:

Are there any members present as delegates whose names have not been called as reported by the Credentials Committee? I notice Rocky Mount is not reported as represented, but it seems to be represented today. Are there any members who have not been reported? If not, as that report has been read, the personnel of the Convention has been called. You all understand that in all matters of busi-
