

Committee Meeting.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee, in which an appeal from the ruling of the Judges in the Hand Reel contest against Chapel Hill being allowed two trials. After carefully considering all the evidence in the case the ruling of the Judges was reversed.

On Page 51 in Wilmington meeting in 1907, Section 3, "No company shall be allowed more than one trial in any contest."

On Page 59, same proceedings: "Judges must be governed by above rules, as no changes will be allowed under any circumstances."

In case of appeal from Judges Rocky Mount and Capital of Raleigh were allowed to divide second and third prizes, the judges being sustained.
